PLANET EARTH®
PLANET HEALTH

WELCOME TO PLANET EARTH, PLANET HEALTH®!

Is it feasible to imagine a world devoid of sickness, illness, or disease? At Planet Earth, Planet Health®, we firmly believe it is.

At Planet Earth, Planet Health®, we're on a mission to change this narrative. The new paradigm for those striving to enhance their health is rooted in information and prevention. The crux of addressing or preventing health issues lies in proactive measures, understanding the inner workings of your body before problems arise. But how do you achieve this? How can you gain insights into your body's health before issues manifest?

The products we are promoting can help you do that, plus achieve a higher sense of health and well-being.

REVOLUTIONIZING HEALTH WITH THIS NEW PROTOCOL

To give you an edge to living a Healthy Life is this breakthrough technology called the NES Bioenergetic Scan. With this technology you can monitor the health of your body at an energetic cellular level from the privacy of your home, on a weekly basis.

LET'S LOOK AT EXACTLY WHAT THIS SCAN TECHNOLOGY WILL DO

- In 10-SECONDS using your voice frequencies, it will look at over 144,000 ELECTRICAL PATHWAYS your cells use to communicate throughout your body.
- It will pick-up and identify any energy blockages that are negatively impacting and jeopardizing your health.
- Reveal in real time which cells, tissues and organs that are PHYSICALLY and ENERGETICALLY weak within the body, and are no longer functioning and communicating with each other as they once did.
- Pinpoint and identify the ROOT CAUSE of a particular symptom or health issue you may have.
- It will identify food sensitivities, environmental challenges, emotions, nutrition, hydration, EMF radiation, trauma and more.
- It will give you the tools and recommend products specifically for your body, to help CORRECT THOSE AREAS your scan deems a high priority to start the healing process.

With your Planet Earth, Planet Health[®] membership, you gain access to unparalleled advantages.

Similar to consulting a radiologist for an interpretation of an X-ray, our NES practitioner Ms. Tori Miller, offers profound insights into your scan results at an energetic level.

Ms. Miller, boasting over 40 years of expertise in health and wellness, will provide detailed explanations and craft personalized protocols to align with your health and wellness objectives.

Ordinarily, consultations with Ms. Miller command a fee of $250 per visit.

However, as a valued member of Planet Earth, Planet Health[®], this fee is entirely waived.

REVOLUTIONIZING HEALTH WITH THIS NEW PROTOCOL

The next technology that is impacting our members' lives is a new wellness system call The BioRhythmic Wellness[®] Protocol.

What will this The BioRhythmic Wellness[®] Protocol do, when it comes to your body, regarding any health issue or diagnosis you may have?

Each BioRhythmic Wellness® Recording you listen to has a specific holistic program tailored to address a wide range of health issues based on your scan, such as stress, anxiety, chronic pain, cognitive issues and any other health challenges or concerns you may have.

Each week we hear exciting, inspirational and many times “jaw-dropping” testimonials of real-life stories about how these BioRhythmic Wellness® Protocols are bringing vitality & health back, while transforming the lives of our members & their families.

The The BioRhythmic Wellness® Protocol. and frequencies they contain can:

- Enhance cellular, emotional, and energetic well-being, facilitating self-healing and balance optimization.
- Improve cellular communication and repair, reducing inflammation and increasing the energy production of the cells and tissues in the body.
- Deliver specific frequencies into the body to return the body to a natural self-healing state.
- Help with pain, migraines, insomnia, skin, organs, etc.
